

Fast Facts

1984

- Private provider of specialized education, therapeutic and community support services for high-need individuals
- Founded 1984

150

- Nearly 150 program locations across Wisconsin and Indiana, serving 43 communities
- Corporate headquarters in Oconomowoc, Wisconsin

Over 2,000

- Over 2,000 individuals and families supported each year
- Individuals served hail from more than 12 states
- Select programs accredited by the Council on Accreditation and Cognia

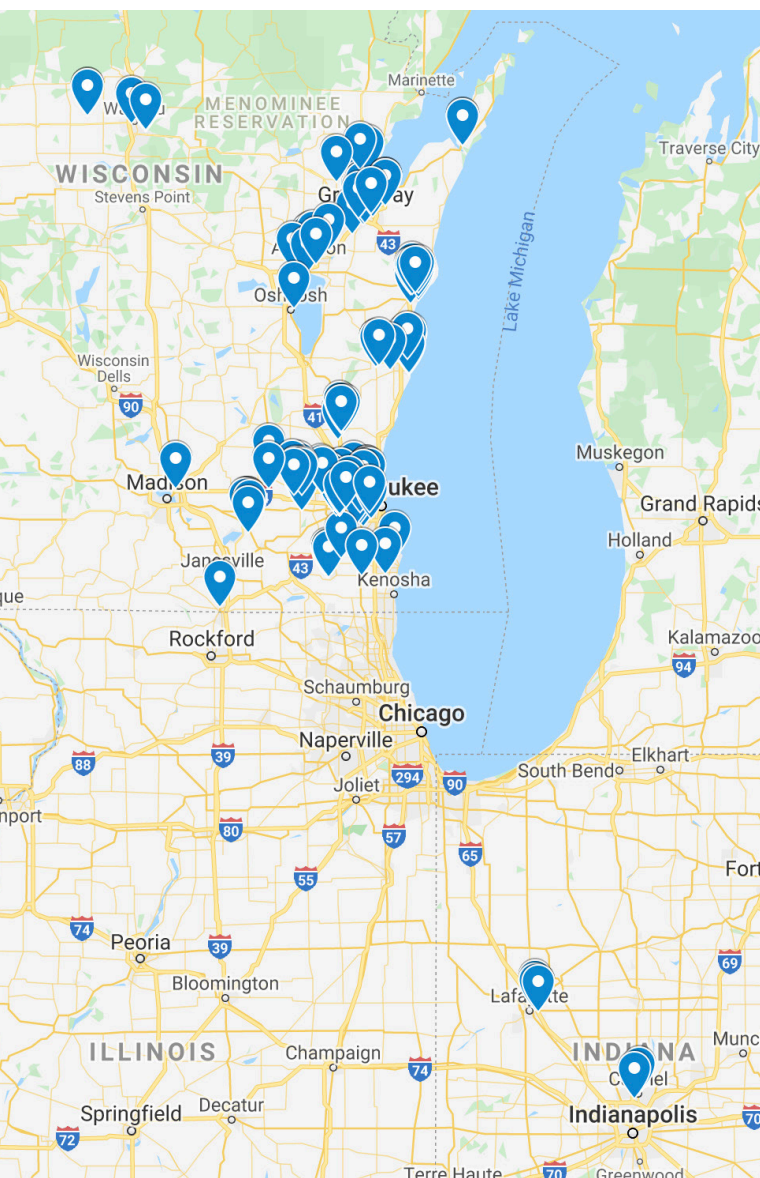

Over 2,000

- Over 2,000 Owners delivering services
- 100% owned by our staff through an Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP)
- Named 2021 Wisconsin ESOP Company of the Year

National Rankings

- #66 on the National Center of Employee Ownership list of 100 top employee-owned organizations
- Fifth largest employee-owned health and human services organization in the nation
- Fifth largest employee-owned company in Wisconsin

Homes for Independent Living of Wisconsin

operates over 100 community-based residential locations providing support to approximately 400 clients in northeastern, southeastern and central Wisconsin.

Prader-Willi Homes supports approximately 80 adults with Prader-Willi Syndrome in community settings in and near Oconomowoc, Wisconsin.

Paragon Community Services offers programs serving approximately 300 adults, young adults and children with intellectual and developmental disabilities through Adult Day Services and Paragon Activity Club (PAC) youth respite services. Plus community and facility based time-limited prevocational skills programs and employment services with both leading to competitive integrated employment.

Genesee Lake School provides education, therapeutic and vocational services for approximately 85 students in its residential program and nearly 35 students in its day school in Wisconsin.

The Richardson School operates five Therapeutic Day Schools serving over 190 students, ages 5-21 with emotional, neurological, and/or developmental disabilities throughout eastern Wisconsin.

Genesee Community Services provides Applied Behavioral Services (ABA) to nearly 70 families in Waukesha, Jefferson and Milwaukee Counties and ABA services to children in a clinic setting under the age of six.

T.C. Harris School and Academy serves approximately 80 students through a residential school and day school in Lafayette, Indiana.

Transitions Academy of Indiana serves approximately 70 youth with significant emotional, behavioral and mental health challenges in a secure treatment setting in Indianapolis, Indiana.