MyPath Secures Strategic Financing to Enhance Client Support Solutions

(Oconomowoc, Wis.) MyPath, a 100% employee-owned provider of specialized education, therapeutic and community support services for high need individuals in Wisconsin and Indiana, is pleased to announce it has entered into a secured senior credit agreement with BMO.

This strategic collaboration will provide a financial foundation for MyPath as it continues to develop innovative support solutions for its clients, while enhancing the well-being of its employee-owners.

“MyPath is excited to welcome BMO as a trusted partner as it charts its course for the future. BMO’s commitment to supporting employee-owned businesses aligns perfectly with MyPath’s mission to provide exceptional services to individuals with significant needs,” says Terry Leahy, Chief Executive Officer, MyPath.

Echoing this sentiment is Leah Turnbull, Managing Director and National Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP) Practice Lead at BMO.

“As a leading advocate with more than 40 years supporting employee-owned businesses in the U.S., BMO is pleased to partner with MyPath, one of the largest ESOP healthcare companies in the nation. MyPath’s mission to support their employees and their communities aligns with BMO’s purpose to Boldly Grow the Good in business and life. Both our firms are committed to helping our clients and the communities we serve make real financial progress and to driving positive change for a thriving economy.”
