Stephanie Chedid Brings Expertise to MyPath Board

(Oconomowoc, Wis.) MyPath, a provider of specialized education, therapeutic and community support services for high-need individuals, announced today that Stephanie Chedid, CEO of Luther Manor (a $30M senior housing and care organization) has been named to the MyPath Board of Directors.

“We are thrilled that MyPath has attracted a professional of Stephanie’s caliber to our board,” said MyPath CEO Terry Leahy. “Her experience leading successful organizations in finance and long-term care, and her significant involvement in public policy, will be extremely valuable as MyPath expands its services in these times of significant need.”

About Stephanie Chedid

Stephanie also serves as a board director and member of the Strategic Planning Committee of MHS Health Wisconsin, a leading Wisconsin healthcare provider, guiding critical areas including regulatory compliance, acquisition targets, and quality standards. She has been instrumental in supporting management in the creation of best-in-class strategies and initiatives that now serve as models for MHS Health Wisconsin’s parent company, Centene Corporation (NYSE: CNC).
