MYPATH WELCOMES SHERRICE HARRELL AS CHIEF HUMAN RESOURCES OFFICER

(Oconomowoc, Wis.) Sherrice Harrell has joined MyPath as Chief Human Resources Officer, bringing more than 25 years of human resources leadership experience to the 100% employee-owned organization providing specialized education, therapeutic services, and community-based support across Wisconsin and Indiana.

“Sherrice brings a depth of experience, strategic perspective and a strong commitment to people that will be incredibly valuable to MyPath as we continue to grow and evolve,” said Dorothy Buchanan Wilson, President and CEO of MyPath. “Her experience leading people strategy in a complex, mission driven organization makes her a tremendous addition to our leadership team. I’m excited for the perspective she will bring to our organization and for the opportunity to work together to strengthen our culture, develop our people and build on the strong foundation we have created at MyPath.”

Harrell most recently served as Chief Administrative Officer at Community Care, Inc., where she provided enterprise-wide leadership across Human Resources, Marketing & Communications, and Facilities. Previously, she served as the organization’s Chief Human Resources Officer and held leadership roles in Human Resources and Employee Relations. Her expertise spans talent strategy, compensation, workforce analytics, compliance, organizational culture, and executive leadership.

“I am honored to join MyPath as Chief Human Resources Officer. I look forward to partnering with the team to strengthen our people, foster a culture where employee-owners thrive, and advance MyPath's mission and continued success,” said Harrell.

As CHRO, Harrell will lead MyPath’s Human Resources function, advancing the people strategies and employee-owner experience that support the organization’s culture and continued growth as a 100% employee-owned company.
