Vincent Lyles Brings Expertise to MyPath Board

(Oconomowoc, Wis.) MyPath, a provider of specialized education, therapeutic and community support services for high-need individuals, announced today that Vincent Lyles has been named to its Board of Directors, effective immediately.

“We are thrilled that MyPath has attracted a professional of Vincent’s caliber to our board,” said MyPath CEO Terry Leahy. “His extensive experience in nonprofit and for-profit leadership roles will be tremendously valuable as MyPath expands its services in these times of significant need.”

About Vincent Lyles

Lyles is currently System Vice President, Community Relations, with Advocate Aurora Health. He previously served as the President and CEO of Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee, the largest youth-serving organization in the city, where he led a team of more than 600 employees and volunteers focused on the single mission of serving youth in the Greater Milwaukee Area.

Previously, Lyles served as president of M&I Community Development Corp. Before the CDC, he was a director with Robert W. Baird & Co. and provided financial advice to Wisconsin municipalities, school districts and special taxing units.

Lyles has served on the boards of organizations include Marquette University, BMO Funds, Badger Mutual Insurance, Near West Side Partners, Milwaukee Public Schools Foundation, and Malaika Early Learning Center.

Lyles was recognized in 2018 with the Badger of the Year Award from the University of Wisconsin–Madison. In 2016, he was named a “40 Under 40” Hall of Fame honoree by the Milwaukee Business Journal.
